

Centre for Historical Research

Programme of Events

Spring 2015

Venue for all events: The Board Room, Glucksman Library, UL.

Research Seminar Series

Wednesday, 11th February, 5.15 p.m.

Dr Elaine Farrell (Queen's University Belfast)

'It is quiet; hardly a murmur within its walls': Life in the Nineteenth-Century Irish Female Convict Prison

Tuesday, 24th February, 5.15 p.m.

Dr Gerard Patrick Noonan (Trinity College Dublin)

Irish Republicans in Britain and the First World War

Tuesday, 10th March, 5.15 p.m.

Professor Neil Gregor (University of Southampton)

Towards a History of the Symphonic Concert Hall in the Third Reich

Tuesday, 14th April, 5.15 p.m.,

Dr Karol Mullaney-Dignam (University of Limerick)

Useless Extravagance? Music, Consumption and the Irish Country House

Irish Record Linkage Workshop

Thursday, 16th April, 9.00-12.30

Irish Record Linkage, 1864-1913 (Irish Research Council funded).

This project applies linked-data technologies to historic vital registration data to revisit the questions of maternal and infant mortality for Dublin. Workshop speakers include Dr Sandra Collins, Director of the Digital Repository of Ireland (DRI), Dr Christophe Debruyne (DRI), Dolores Grant (DRI), Rebecca Grant (DRI), Dr Oya Beyan (Insight @NUIG) and UL historians, Dr Ciara Breathnach and Dr Brian Gurrin.

For further information contact Dr Richard Kirwan (richard.kirwan@ul.ie)