EDUCATION IN CRISIS

McAuley
Conference
Series

May 21st & 22nd 2015

This Conference will explore resources both inside and outside the Christian tradition that can help in countering what are perceived as increasingly instrumentalist and politicised educational systems dominated by short-term thinking. Marking the fiftieth anniversary of Gravissimum Educationis, and twenty-fifth anniversary of Ex Corde Ecclesiae the 2015 McAuley Conference will consider the resources that exist within the Christian tradition to foster human growth and maturation, and to educate for the common good.

An emerging scholars' colloquium will take place Thursday, May 21st, followed by the main conference.

Confirmed speakers for main conference include:

- Prof Frank Furedi (School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research, University of Kent, UK, author of Wasted: Why Education is not Educating);
- Prof William Desmond (School of Philosophy, KU Leuven, Belgium);
- Rev Dr Ronald Nuzzi (Alliance for Catholic Education, University of Notre Dame, USA);
- Prof Lieven Boeve (Faculty of Theology, KU Leuven, and the Education Office of the Belgian Bishops' Conference);
- Prof Mary Gallagher (School of Languages & Literature, UCD, author of Academic Armageddon: an Irish Requiem for Higher Education);
- Sr Mary Jo Martin RSHM, (Chief Inspector of Schools, Westminster, UK);
- Prof Conleth Hussey (Dept of Civil Engineering and Materials Science, UL);
- Members of the Department of Theology & Religious Studies, Mary Immaculate College.
